

The democratic party of Ohio, can see itself by looking at the Ohio river, and then appreciate what it is to be full.

General Grant is out, for General Logan for the presidency. This, however, may not insure his nomination by acclamation.

Colonel Lamm, now of Denver, is engaged in writing his second volume of the life of Lincoln. Unless it is better than the first volume, it would be better if he never finished it.

It doesn't make much difference which way the democratic party turns, it is confronted with difficulty. Difficulties have dogged its heels ever since it deposed the cause of slavery and a dishonest ballot.

Although a second deluge threatens Cincinnati, and darkness, dread and suffering are the lot of that city, 4,500 people had courage enough to flock to the Music hall to hear Nilsson on Monday night.

It is related that on one occasion during the struggle with rebellion, when Anna Dickinson had moved an audience to alternate cheers and tears, Wendell Phillips, who had spoken at the same meeting said to her: "Anna, I would give much to be able to make people cry as you do. Why cannot I do it?" Miss Dickinson's quick reply was: "I suspect the reason is because you never cry yourself."

No one who does not live in the Ohio valley can form any idea of the distressing situation in that part of the country. The river at Cincinnati is 68½ feet above low water mark and is still rising. Ten thousand people are temporarily camping on the hill-tops, and property is being destroyed by the thousands every day. The condition of things is fearfully alarming, for what the end will be no one is far-seeing enough to guess. Thousands of people are homeless and distress is spreading all along the river.

Patents were issued on February 5th to Wisconsin inventors as reported by Messrs. Erwin & Benedict Patent attorneys, of 395 East Water street, Milwaukee, as follows:

Car-brake, J. C. Dana, La Crosse. Clay-tempering machine, J. F. Dornfeld, Watertown.

Grain-securer, C. M. Gilbert, Milwaukee.

Potato-digger, L. Habeck, Town Lake, Invalid-int. G. J. Goodhue, Jr., Stevens Point.

Practical-bag-rack, C. R. Harrison, Fond-du-Lac.

Churn, O. Henry, Fort Atkinson. Elevator, A. Knechtel, Milwaukee.

Saw-mill-dog, J. J. McGillis, Marinette. Window-sash, W. A. Sinsel, Waukesha. Sash-board fastener, W. A. Sinsel, Waukesha.

The Queen's new book is just from the press in London. Although it is a royal book, it is likewise a "royal failure." It is crammed with domestic incidents of the most trivial character. A cablegram from London gives a general outline of the contents of the work. It covers a period of 20 years, from 1863 to 1882. The most touching part of the book are the portions regarding the bruising of John Brown's knee. The carriage upset and out him a little, and the royal pen gives a description of the sufferings of the body-servant. It is funny to read about the Queen's flow of sympathy for John Brown's sore leg. Of course, it is ridiculous, but it is interesting in showing how silly and fallacious Her Majesty can write about circumstances that are beneath the notice of a common newspaper reporter.

GENERAL LOGAN'S OUTLOOK.
A few weeks ago the editor of the Chicago Daily News sent the following inquiry to a number of persons throughout the United States:

Dear Sir: Will you kindly advise me whether in your present judgment Senator Logan is likely to be the first choice of any of the delegates from your state; also is he likely to be the second choice? An early reply will oblige, etc.

The editor of the News says "the note was posted to half a dozen of the more prominent gentlemen in each state without the slightest reference to their supposed preferences." Answers to this inquiry were received from every state in the Union, and from the tone of these answers, there is no indication of a presidential boom for General Logan. There is a remarkable unanimity in opinions expressed in the letters regarding General Logan's chances. The answers from Wisconsin to the News inquiry are given below, and it will be observed that there is no difference of opinion concerning the Logan boom in this state:

FROM THE HON. HOBACE RUBLEE.
Editor Daily News—Dear Sir: Your note asking my opinion whether General Logan is likely to be the first or second choice of any of the Wisconsin delegation to the Chicago convention is received. As yet there is very little discussion in this state respecting presidential candidates. I have heard a good many expressions in favor of Secretary Lincoln, either for the first or second place on the ticket—mostly for the latter—but not for General Logan. From such knowledge as I possess respecting the action of the people and probable action of the republicans of this state I think it extremely improbable that any of our delegates will favor General Logan as first or second choice, though, if nominated, he would be cordially supported without doubt. I am very truly yours, HOBACE RUBLEE, Editor Sentinel, Milwaukee, Wis.

FROM D. L. VOLZ.
Editor Daily News—Dear Sir: From present indications Senator Logan is not, and will not be, the first choice of the republican delegation from this state to the Chicago convention. Neither are there any prospects of election. The second choice of the delegation will be the second choice of the state, and the third choice of the delegation will be the third choice of the state. The republican delegation will be influenced to vote for him. At present this is the outlook. Time, however, may change this sentiment in regard to Mr. Arthur. I am, Sir, very truly yours, D. L. VOLZ, Editor Gazette, Janesville, Wis.

opportunity to speak accurately, so far as I am able to judge. Senator Logan is not likely, at present, to be the first choice of Wisconsin delegates. Further I could not make a guess that would approach an opinion.

Green Bay, Wis., Editor Gazette.
The Gazette is of the opinion that this is the present outlook for General Logan in Wisconsin. Whether this will change between this time and June cannot be predicted. Time, which sometimes makes strange turns in the political chances of men, may possibly change the sentiment regarding President Arthur and the tide may flow for General Logan, but the chances are against him at present.

But this does not argue that General Logan is not a fit man for the presidency nor that he has not the confidence of the republicans. Logan is one of the truest men in this country, and is influential in his republicanism without being a fanatic. Should he be nominated, he would receive the hearty support of the republicans of Wisconsin.

PITTIABLE SCENES

Which Are To Be Seen on the Banks of the Ohio River.

Destitution Growing Hourly. More Terrible—A Town Without Fire or Fuel—Cincinnati and Vicinity—Relief Measures.

CINCINNATI, Feb. 13.—The muddy waves of the Ohio river up an inch an hour for the twenty-four hours ending at 6 p. m., but since that time have only advanced half an inch. People who thought themselves safe from reach of the terrible river were moving to higher and safer quarters. The flood has now reached an almost incredible height, and people stand bled and asking when will it stop. In fact, matters are so desperate that the public is prepared for anything, and those who remain simply stand and wait for what may next come. In the city, the situation is more and more deplorable. Each day thousands of mortals thrown out of employment, and they and their families must find food. The funds in the hands of the relief committee are inadequate, and while as yet there is no actual want, still the possibility of it stares the citizens of Cincinnati in the face. A water famine is now, an assured fact. Even with the most economical use of water by the consumers, it cannot last more than five or six days, and in case of a large fire the reservoirs would be exhausted. Not only this, but the city is left in darkness, and innumerable temptations are offered to thieves and law-breakers. The police are supplied by nearly 500 militia, but still many dangers are to be feared from thieves and law-breakers. It is generally conceded that the river will be as low as falling as in a week. Additional rains and warm weather will tend to keep the Ohio up, if not to continue the flood. At 10 o'clock p. m. the river stood six feet eight inches and one-half inches and rising. Heavy rain, however, and high winds.

At Gallipolis, Ohio, the people are all sad, and the city is nearly all above water. The loss will be comparatively light, but above and below there is utter desolation on every hand. The destruction and suffering cannot be imagined. The Gallipolis relief committee have sent four boats up the river to Ferryway and Middleport, loaded with provisions, and others will soon follow; but the supply is almost exhausted. Point Pleasant, W. Va., is entirely inundated; only about twenty houses can be seen above the water. Middleport and Chesapeake are four to ten feet under water. Pomeroy is all under water, except the hills, with every business house flooded to the second story. One hundred and twenty-five houses have washed away from Pomeroy. Within twenty miles of Gallipolis 23,000 people have been driven from home, and 10,000 are camping out on the hills. The people are suffering for food.

At Lawrenceburg there is no regularly organized relief committee, and but few or no provisions on hand; there is a sad fate for them if a committee is not now formed and provisions supplied. At present the people are having a coal and coal oil famine. There is no coal oil in the city, and the gas is shut out. No telegraph, no telephone, no railroad, and no boat connection to the city. The individual cases of suffering this year are equalled only by those of 1858, and the city is in utter desolation. The streets are empty, guarded and patrolled by police, and the engine houses are filled with firemen, all ready to rush to duty at the tap of the bell. About 4000 persons are camped out on the hills, and among them are many who are in utter desolation. The fair ground is totally ruined—the fences all down; the sheds, stables, and some of the houses fronted off. The Ohio & Mississippi railroad levee is washed out for a distance of 200 yards and is still rising. Every body seems paralyzed. The northwestern part of the city is entirely abandoned, and many houses in other parts of the city. Hundreds of families are homeless. Not less than 6000 people had to go out of the city. The situation at Bolivar, Ohio, is improving. The river has fallen nearly six feet, but is falling very slowly. There is still more water than in last February at the highest. We have no communication with Marietta, but much damage is reported there. Lawrenceburg has been flooded for many days, and the people are suffering from lack of food and clothing. At Point Pleasant, a town of 3000 people, there is not a foot of ground which is not at least six feet under water. Storehouses, roads, dwellings in fact all kinds of houses are being washed away. In fact wherever they can get shelter. Many have gone to the hills for safety.

In the Kanawha Valley.
CHARLESTON, W. Va., Feb. 13.—The government boat Bee and the towboat John D. Lewis have returned here from distribution provisions to the flood sufferers along the Kanawha river. The press correspondent who was along took close observation of all the scenes, also the causes of absolute necessity, and is returned from that most sad suffering has been caused by high water on the Kanawha river. At Buffalo, half the town is submerged, but the people are, as a general thing, supplied with food. At Leon Place, 300 people are under water and suffering for food and clothing. At Point Pleasant, a town of 3000 people, there is not a foot of ground which is not at least six feet under water. Storehouses, roads, dwellings in fact all kinds of houses are being washed away. In fact wherever they can get shelter. Many have gone to the hills for safety.

Wheeling.
WHEELING, W. Va., Feb. 13.—The situation here is slightly improved, but the rate of progress is painfully slow. Thousands are hard at work about their homes, and large gangs of laborers, with many teams, are engaged in clearing the streets of drift and debris, tearing down houses which blocked the thoroughfares, filling up the great chasms, and otherwise restoring things to their normal condition. This labor must continue for weeks, however, before it is anything like completed. The river has fallen slowly during the night, and the panic over the rumored rise at Pittsburgh is over. The river has advanced 2½ inches in two weeks.

Small-Pox.
HOLYOKE, Mass., Feb. 13.—Eleven small-pox patients have been committed to the city, and children living on the various streets where the epidemic broke out have been barred out of the schools.

Vacancy Filled.
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 13.—The board of directors of the Lehigh Valley Railroad company has elected Eliza P. Wilbur to fill the vacancy caused by the death of President Harry B. Packer.

Skill and intelligence have accomplished what has been thought practically impossible, viz.: The combination of Grape Cream Tartar and Bi-Carb. Soda, without filling into Baking Powder. The result is DeLand's Chemical Baking Powder.

Predictions at Pittsburgh.
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 13.—Old river men predict that the rivers at this point will again rise to thirty-three or more feet, in consequence of the recent rains. The latest marks show eighteen feet in the Monongahela, and twenty feet in the Allegheny, and rising.

Helping the Sufferers.
BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 13.—Seven young men and eight boats were sent to New York, Ky., by the West End. Roring Club to assist in rescuing life and to act under Mayor Horton and the Newport relief committee.

The Half-Starved Garrison at Sinkat Makes a Gallant but Fruitless Fight—Other Foreign News.
WASHINGTON CITY, Feb. 13.—The secretary of war has taken steps to secure an effective and systematic distribution of the $800,000 appropriated by congress for the relief of the sufferers by the overflow of the Ohio river. Gen. Beckwith, of the commissary department, has been ordered from St. Louis to Cincinnati to establish headquarters in the latter city, and assume general charge of the work of distribution. No detailed instructions were given Gen. Beckwith, who is authorized to charter the necessary boats to travel up and down the river with provisions and clothing, the distribution to be effected under the joint auspices of the military and civil authorities.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Feb. 13.—At the meeting of the board of trade relief committee it was decided to charter a boat and fully equip it with clothing, provisions and medicines to patrol the Ohio river towns and render assistance whenever it is needed. A committee was appointed to go to Cincinnati and lease a boat, and the work will begin immediately. The purchasing committee reports that 1,500 pounds of bread, 400 pounds of meat, 500 pounds of coffee, and 20 barrels of pigs' feet have been forwarded. MURDER AND SUICIDE.
Cairo, Feb. 13.—The commissary general of the Egyptian forces in Egypt, accompanied by officers of the Egyptian engineers corps, has started for Assiout to prepare suitable accommodations there for military stores, and for a reserve force of troops to be called upon in case of disaster to Gen. Wood at Assiout. Arrangements have been made for the immediate dispatch of 3,000 troops to Sinkat, under Maj. Gen. Sir Gerald Graham, K. C. B., who has been in command of the Egyptian garrison at Cairo. Telegrams from Gen. Gordon state that he is now more than ever confident of success. He has asked the chiefs of various tribes to meet and confer with him on route, and has received favorable responses from many of them. It is spoken of as showing the friendship of the Nile tribes for Gen. Gordon that upon his approach to Barber the town was illuminated in his honor and he was received with great ceremony by the governor. Gen. Gordon telegraphs that he has disposed the Egyptian force of Khartoum, and has appointed Col. Cookson in his stead.

Another Case of Crime Prompted by Jealous Love.
New York, Feb. 13.—A young woman who shot Victor Croton Andro on the platform of the Elevated road at Fifty-ninth street and Third avenue, afterward fatally wounded, was today identified as Miss Jennie H. Almy, a school teacher of No. 111 East Twenty-first street. She was 24 years of age, finely educated and of prepossessing appearance. It appears that Andro and Miss Almy were acquainted for some time, and that the acquaintance soon ripened into love, and a marriage contract was entered into, but for some reason Andro, a short time after, broke the engagement, and, despite the appeals of Miss Almy, he refused to resume the engagement, and finally declined to see her at all. This, it is supposed, preyed on the girl's mind and led her to commit the crime. Andro, who, after the shooting, was removed to the Presbyterian hospital, was reported late in the evening as being in a very critical condition. Coroner Kennedy has been called to take his ante-mortem statement. The wounded man in his deposition acknowledges his acquaintance with Miss Almy, and said that the reason he broke off the engagement was because he had been told on good authority that she had been divorced. The physicians in attendance upon Andro are optimistic in their prognosis.

TOIL AND TROUBLE.
The Fall River Men.
FALL RIVER, Mass., Feb. 13.—The weavers of Great Fall River, Mass., are in a bad way. The city has 800 looms, employs 2000 weavers, and makes fancy-woven dress and bleached goods. The trouble was caused by dissatisfaction at the cut-down, and by the increase of wages at the King Philip. They were all paid out in advance, and a meeting, voting to stay out until the concessions were made. The spinners held a rousing meeting. The general impression was that it would be advisable to extend the strike until the 15th inst. The strikers are expected to visit Boston, New York, Brooklyn, Troy, Newark, Trenton, and other cities.

Naits.
PITTSBURGH, Feb. 13.—The Western Null association will hold another meeting to consider the advisability of the withdrawal of their support of the railroads. About two weeks ago a meeting was held, at which the question was not decided, but it is understood that all present then, favored the stoppage.

Accept Reduction.
MANCHESTER, Feb. 13.—The striking cotton weavers of Blackburn have accepted the reduction in their wages and will resume work.

Wages Reduced.
ESSEX, Mass., Feb. 13.—The wages in some of the shipyards have been reduced from 25 to 20 per cent.

Whisky Wound the Boys Up.
BROOKLYN, N. Y., Feb. 13.—New Lots was the scene of a wedding party Monday evening. Jimmy McBride and Mary Burke joined hands and fortunes on Sunday, and with Irish hospitality invited all to rejoice and partake of the convivial refreshments. Among the guests was a number of young firemen who are a cause of considerable trouble to the police. There were also a number of Germans present, and toward 1 o'clock at night the whisky warmed the boys up to a fighting point, and a war of boys out in which an array of wares and knives were used that would have done credit to a Texas cowboy. Fifteen were badly injured and three of the participants are now in hospital, where there is a hope of their recovery. Several arrests have been made.

Business Failures.
NEW YORK, Feb. 13.—J. M. Jones & Sons, car manufacturers, of West Troy, N. Y., have failed, with liabilities of $100,000. The assets are not yet known. Dispatches received by Bradstreet's say that Edward Pillsbury's Sons cotton commission merchants, at New Orleans, have failed, with liabilities reported at $140,000. The assets, which are supposed to be large, are not immediately available.

Philadelphia, Feb. 13.—T. P. & S. Smith, shoe manufacturers at 335 Arch street, have failed, their liabilities approximately $200,000; assets, not known.

1st. Because we devote our time exclusively to selling real estate and are always ready to show you our property.

2d. Because we will give you free transportation to examine any property we offer you within this state, and will furnish some one to show it to you without any expense to yourself.

3d. Because we can show you just what you want and can sell it to you cheaper, and on better terms than you can purchase elsewhere.

4th. Because of the large amount of farm, city and village property we have for sale and the opportunity we can offer for selection.

5th. Because we can offer for purchase the counties of Dane, Rock, Green, Iowa, Sauk, Jefferson, and Wisconsin, and in the states of Iowa, Minnesota, Arkansas and Texas.

We also call attention to the fact that we have an office in Madison, to which we can send property free of charge. If you have a place to rent or want to rent a place call on us. My new block, Janesville, Wis. P. O. Box 11.

—Invitations are out for an old-time social and dance to be given by Crystal Temple of Honor No. 32, at Apollo hall, on the evening of February 22d. The Arion quadrille band are to furnish the music.

—Mrs. C. M. Moseley and Miss Jellie C. Wilson went to Chicago to-day to attend the opera this afternoon in which Kaiti and Goretto will appear. They will hear Irving in Hamlet this evening.

—No end to the weddings in preparation. Are already reported and the rural districts yet to hear from. Let the good work progress. Wedding cards, a specialty at the Gazette job rooms, "Bizness business."

—Wm. Gernott was yesterday sentenced to one year's imprisonment in the state prison, for stealing Mr. Sexton's coat at the Baptist church fire, and Sheriff Harper took the prisoner to Waupun in the afternoon.

—Mr. J. S. Fife, son of Mr. E. G. Fife, of the First ward, started for Kansas yesterday with a car load of horses and other articles, including two imported Clydesdales, which were purchased from Galbraith Brothers, of this city.

—Business failures are of rare occurrence. It is a source of regret when any man is obliged to give up to circumstances that are beyond his control; and whatever causes may have produced the misfortune, we sympathize with men in this condition.

—It will be seen from an advertisement elsewhere that the Bohemian Glass Bowers will make another visit to Janesville next week, and will occupy the vacant room west of Tarrant & Osgood's grocery store. They were here three years ago and did a good business.

—There was a good attendance at the social party given at Apollo hall last night by the friends of Christ church. The evening was uneventful but that did not overcome the zeal the young people had for this excellent piece of social capital. The next and last social for the present season will be given next Tuesday evening.

—If you have not already made the acquaintance of the "Stockings," on North Main street, it will pay you to do so at an early day. Courtesy demands a call on all new comers, and courteous treatment by the Stockings seems to induce the callers to come again. They keep a fine tonorial establishment next door to the Gazette office.

—There was a large audience at the First Methodist church last evening to share in the interest in the revival meeting. The Rev. C. B. Wilcox, of Court Street church, preached the sermon. The Rev. Mr. Goldthorpe, was unable to attend on account of illness. There will be no meeting this evening, but on Thursday evening there will be services which will begin at seven o'clock.

—The Beloit Free Press—"A tramp stole a pair of shoes from in front of A. Brittan's shoe store about half past six o'clock last evening, and was soon arrested. To-day he was sentenced to 30 days in jail. Two other vagrants were sent to jail for five days each. It looks as though the stealing of the shoes was done purposely to get a berth in the county jail."

—Our hearts swell with gratitude when we think how many of our citizens have escaped death by that most fearful disease lymphatic. Enough can not be said in praise of the thoughtful soul that provided our dogs with tin medals at one dollar a head. We look at our dog medal occasionally with a feeling of pride and satisfaction, and shall hand it down to posterity labeled "a trophy of our advanced civilization."

—What is the use of going to Washington Territory to pick up gold nuggets in a bucket, when you can buy the pure pulverized article at Winslow's for $1.35 a sack. The wear and tear on the bucket ought to be considered if say nothing about the long and tedious journey. Solid gold in fifty pound lumps right at home is worth more than a lump of gold three thousand miles away. One furnishes substantial food, the other is liable to furnish food for reflection. Reflect at home, and when you pass the C. O. D. drop in and report.

—The St. Patrick's T. A. & B. society have engaged the Guards' army for their next party, which will take place on Monday evening, February 25th. It is needless to say that the party will be successful, as the society's past record has been such as to place it on the top-most round of prosperity. With Anderson's full orchestra to entertain the dancers, and Shurtliff to supply the "inner man," everything will work harmoniously. Assist in a worthy cause by giving the society a call.

—A boy in the first ward received as a premium from the publishers of the Youth's Companion, a fine Waterbury watch. After the careful handling that boys usually give to pocket time pieces, the watch was found to be out of repair and carefully packed in a box with sixty cents accompanying it, it was forwarded to the great factory to be overhauled. In a few days the boy was delighted by receiving a new watch, with the explanation that the old one was past redemption. Watches at sixty cents apiece are about as cheap as "centennial half-dollars" at ten cents a dozen.

—For sale—a good, reliable, forty-cent combination barometer and thermometer, nearly new, warranted reliable—that is, the man who bought it of said it was reliable. We think he understood his business, for the mercury indicates summer heat all the time, and the fluid in the barometer is always free from sediment. Nothing but sheer necessity would induce us to offer the little instrument for sale. Cool in summer, warm in winter, clear weather the year round;—hard to please is the man, who wouldn't be satisfied with this kind of a weather gauge. Terms cash, or an approved note.

—There was a sort of a social reunion and a prize meeting at the rooms of the Young Men's Christian association last evening. Among the visitors were twenty-one ladies and gentlemen from Evansville. The Milwaukee and Beloit associations were also represented by delegates. The meeting was led by State Secretary W. E. Lewis, whose words to the members of the association were both interesting and cheering. After the singing, prayer and speaking, the members devoted some time to hand-shaking and visiting. Arrangements were made for the visitation of a neighboring association at an early day.

—Mrs. Dille, wife of the business manager of the Janesville Gazette, was escorted by her husband last Friday evening to go coasting with him and the children, and between them they managed to bring about a collision by which the wife and mother of four children just above the wrist was fractured. There's no telling what a Janesville man will resort to to bring about a dissolution of his marital partnership. Mrs. B. is receiving the sympathies of her numerous lady friends, but it is not with wide open eyes of suspicion at her husband. Thus far, however, the indignant glances that have been shot at him have fallen off of that high convex forehead of his as he glances from a duck's back.

We clip the above from the Beloit Free Press; and are pleased to add that a flag of truce now floats at half mast from the front gate, and the neighborhood has assumed its wonted quiet. Green-eyed suspicion has put on a new pair of goggles, and "indignant glances" have ceased to shoot.

—Yesterday a Chinaman dressed in citizen clothes, with his queue off, and who was very flip with his tongue, came to this city from Chicago. He visited the Ching Wing laundry, and got into the good graces of the Celestials by telling them that he had $3,000 or $4,000 worth of goods coming from San Francisco, and that he intended to rent a store and stock it up well with fancy goods. He pretended to them that he had rented a store of Peter Myers, and wanted to pay $50 down on the rent. He won the confidence of Ching Wing that he succeeded in borrowing $100 of him, telling him that he would pay $50 of it to Mr. Myers. He left for Chicago on the seven o'clock train, and during the early hours of the forenoon the Chinaman inquired of Mr. Myers if their Celestial friend had paid the rent, and being answered in the negative, they became wild with excitement, and concluded that they had been sold. These facts were reported to Marshal Hogan, who at once telegraphed Eugene Rich to have the sharper arrested. When the train reached Chicago, he was nabbed by an officer, a telegram to that effect being received by Marshal Hogan from Chief of Police Doyle. Hogan was off to Chicago to-night to bring the rascal to this city. It is probable that Ching Wing will receive his money.

—Feintation.

Trouble and sorrow are the common lot of mankind and the many channels through which misfortunes flow are as varied as they are numerous. Coming down Main street last Sabbath evening we met a friend, who showed plainly by his downcast face, that he was a victim of misfortune. With a feeling of sympathy, we inquired as to the nature of his trouble. He said that everything had gone wrong for a week. On Wednesday evening he had presented a young lady with a fine ebony bird noted for its musical ability, and the lady invited in a number of friends to listen to the sweet strains of the warbler; after waiting until midnight and resorting to all sorts of devices to induce the bird to sing them a tune the party broke up without being favored with a single note from the sweet singer. Taking the bird back to the man who furnished him, he learned that he had been the victim of a practical joke. He was told that the bird in question belonged to the sex not noted for singing. The only apology offered was, the lady had been furnished with two evening's entertainment instead of one. The anticipation of the previous evening was certainly enjoyable, and handing him the right bird, the enjoyment for this evening will be fully realized, "for I will warrant this bird to sing."

He said he could have got along with the bird sell well enough, but this afternoon another misfortune happened which broke him all up. He called at the home of the same lady to give her a sleigh ride after his high stepper; and, while in the house enjoying a quiet chat, some one kindly appropriated his horse and enter, and the afternoon and evening had been spent in a vain search for the run-a-way.

When we told him that we saw a couple of ladies enjoying his turn-out on the street, as we came down his face assumed a more quiet expression, and he said, "what's all right; that's my other girl, and she certainly is entitled to some consideration."

We left him, fully confirmed in the belief, that while tribulations rarely come singly, the most aggravated experiences frequently exhibit a bright side.

Food that is Poisonous.

by unclean teeth breeds disease. Such, at least, is the declared opinion of medical men. Remedy the evil with purifying, aromatic SCODDONT, which cleans away corrosive particles which lodge in the teeth and produce an acid ferment, that in time destroys their enamel and ruins them. It prevents the unspeakable annoyance caused by defective teeth, if it is used while they can yet be saved from the destructive effects of tartar and other impurities.

Municipal Court.

The case of the state [against] Judd C. Nowell charged with an assault on Jerry Leahy with intent to do great bodily harm, is on trial to-day. The jurors are E. G. Fife, Charles Tall, Kiron Bemis, John Falter, Martin Johnson, C. F. Randall, H. C. Stearns, at Robinson, A. P. Bennett, I. O. Brownell, H. B. Kenniston, and J. B. Hyzer. C. E. Pierce appears for state, C. M. Seandran for defendant.

Case of state against Cumary has not come on yet, he time fixed in the book for his appearance was Feb. 15th.

Give Dr. Price's Special Flavoring Extract a trial, and if they please you, recommend them to your neighbor; if not, return them and have your money refunded, and discontinue them as vile impositions. We have no fears of your not being satisfied, for their popularity and extensive sale has been from their perfect purity and quality.

Livery Stable.

Nelson Bro's, corner of Court and Park streets, at the east end of the lower bridge, keep a first class livery stable. Any one in want of a good rig would do well to call on them. They also furnish horse and carriages for funerals at a reasonable rate.

The Baptist Church.

Many expressions of sympathy are noticed on every hand for the Baptist society, occasioned by the recent loss of their beautiful church edifice. These kindly words come not only from church going people, but from all classes in the community, showing that when the devoting flames found their way along the roof and into the spire that had so long marked the familiar temple of worship, and were not satisfied until ruin was complete. That our citizens realized that a great loss had come to our city, this feeling that so often finds expression in words, is an index to the moral sentiment of Janesville, that is indeed gratifying and fully appreciated by the society, whose misfortune brought it to the surface. The loss of a church by Bro. Hughes very many homes. The influence of a church, though silent in many of its workings, is nevertheless broad in its scope and controls, many times unconsciously, the actions of men. We are pleased to note that the Baptist society is meeting with success in its efforts to rebuild. The ladies of the church are now planning for a "Japanese entertainment," to aid in the work. We bespeak for their substantial aid, and believe their expectations will be fully realized.

With Old Time Regularity.

The 104th monthly drawing of the Louisiana State lottery took place on January 15th. The Commissioners, Gen. E. Early and Beauregard, obtained the following result: Ticket No. 31,993 drew the 1st capital of $75,000, sold in fifties, cost $1.00 each, was sold to a gentleman in New York city, another to a newspaperman in Petersburg, Va., the others scattered everywhere as usual. Ticket No. 20,695 drew the 2d prize of $25,000 sold in fifties. Ticket No. 10,400, sold in fifties, was sold to a government employee, probably who does not seek publicity. Ticket No. 83,176 drew the 3d capital prize of $10,000, sold in fifties also; one each held by Henry Munk, No. 276 Gratiot avenue, and Mr. Samuel Michigan. Nos. 12,144 and 64,253, 3d Capital prizes, drew each $5,000, sold in fifties; among others to W. M. Lakey, of Bell's Greyson Co., Texas, through Merchants and Planters Bank, St. Louis.

Many who were seeking to conceal the fact of their having drawn a prize. But let every one try for himself on Tuesday, March 11, 1884, when the 166th Grand Monthly Distribution will occur, and of which M. A. Dargatzis, New Orleans, will fully inform you on application.

Japanese Entertainment.

The ladies of the Baptist church are making elaborate preparations for a Japanese entertainment to be given at Cannon's hall on the evenings of Feb. 22d and 23d, to aid in raising funds toward rebuilding their church. Rare and beautiful articles from Japan will be on exhibition and for sale. Supper will be served and every purchaser of a ticket presented with a real Japanese cup and saucer. The hall will be beautifully decorated and a large number of ladies appear in Japanese costume.

Five Jerseys.

Last fall, while returning home from the fair, Mr. N. N. Palmer, of Broadhead, who is one of the most successful breeders of fine Jersey cattle in the west, called at the Gazette office, and of course, had some interesting facts relating to Jersey cattle, which he then gave to us, stating that he had purchased a couple more from an eastern herd, which were a little ahead of anything in the west, and that when they arrived he would give us particulars. Under date of February 9th, Mr. Palmer writes:

"Those two Jersey heifers I bought in Massachusetts recently, that of Decatur 3rd, No. 15,945 and Dina's Glory No. 23,883, the former a little over three years, the latter a little less than eighteen months old, arrived at Evergreen farm to-day in fine condition considering their long journey. They won the admiration of all who have seen them. They have a thin, loose hide and coats as fine as silk, coming from one of the best herds in New England and are daughters of some of his best cows so Mr. Barnett writes me. Mob is in calf by Link a full brother in blood to the celebrated cow Bonita, who with second calf as a 3 year old and 4 months after calving produced in seven days 21 pounds 11 1/2 ounces of butter. While in charge of a committee appointed by the American Jersey cattle club and 80 pounds 11 ounces in 8 days, Dena's Glory is in calf by satisfaction whose breeding is equal to Link's. I was sure my friends would not think necessary to put me under Capt. Putnam's charge, I would let you what the two little things cost me now that I am getting reckless. I will let it out, they cost me within a small fraction of $800, now to relieve the anxiety of my friends, Mr. Richardson wrote me after they arrived in Danvers (as they were shipped from Massachusetts with a car load of his to him) that the youngest one was worth $500, and he could sell it for that. My stock is looking fine."

"Boiled" Recitations.

UTICA, N. Y., Feb. 13.—The students of Hamilton college asked the faculty for a holiday in respect to the late Dr. North, ex-president of the college, who died Saturday. They were refused the request. The students attempted to hold a college meeting in the chapel, but were prevented. They then left the campus, when they agreed to hold "recitations for a day. Accordingly on Monday but two men from the whole college attended recitations. The faculty has held a meeting, and several suspensions are expected.

Another Telegraph Competitor.

HARTFORD, Pa., Feb. 13.—An application for a charter that may cause some competition among telegraph companies has been applied for at the state department by the Western Pennsylvania Telegraph and Telephone company, the capital of which is $100,000. The business is to be confined to the western part of the state, the portions of New York, Maryland, Ohio and West Virginia. The head office is at Pittsburgh. It is the intention of the company to commence active operations as soon as the charter is secured.

Mining Property To Be Sold.

BRAUNFORD, Vt., Feb. 13.—Chancellor Rowell has decided to instruct the receiver to sell the mining property at Ely, Vt., for the benefit of the bondholders on condition, on condition of the Vermont Copper Mining company, made in January. The property is valued at $1,0
